Examples of visualization using simulated frame photographs with (1) shading by illumination model (terrain), and (2) texture by projection into triangulated reference photographs